

1. How many convicted sex offenders in the community (should not include incarcerated offenders) does your force area manage.

1a. How many are classified as Very High Risk, High Risk, Medium Risk and Low Risk.

1b. (If time permits) How many of the sex offenders that your force managers have convictions for offences relating to Indecent Images of Children?

1 The force level number of MAPPA eligible offenders which includes a breakdown of registered sexual offenders is published within individual force MAPPA reports, please see the following link:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/multi-agency-public-protection-arrangements-mappa-annual-reports-2014-to-2015>

The statistical data for this current year will be published within the next MAPPA report due October 2016.

1 and b – As above

2. How many officers and civilians do you employ who's role is specifically to visit convicted sex offenders to manage their risk to the public.

49 current officers (including part time officers)

3. How many supervisors (Sergeant and equivalent civilian rank) and employed to directly supervise officers employed to visit convicted sex offenders.

8 Sergeants

4. What computer triage tools (used to examine computers while visiting convicted sex offenders) do officers employed to manage convicted sex offenders use. (please list all used)

This information is exempt by virtue of Section 31(1)(a)(b) Law Enforcement