*Please be aware that the figures for refused annual leave requests above include the following:

- Requests that has been submitted in error. This can include requests for annual leave that has been refused due to the individual not having enough annual leave to cover the period or annual leave requests which have been rejected due to an abstraction already being in place for the officer.
- All requests in breach of Police Officer Regulations.
- May also include annual leave which has been used to book cover over rest days.
- Any annual leave requests that have been made during 'embargoed' periods (such as the Christmas period) would automatically be refused by the system. However, the request for time off during this period may be accepted at a later date in a separate request.
