

Table 1 – West Midlands Police Victim Right to Review

Criminal Justice Services April 2015 - October 2017.

* Issues of note regarding interpreting the data:

- The WMP VRR scheme started in April 2015, so that's as far back as records go.
- The figures include appeals which were not actually suitable for VRR – for example where CPS actually made the decision or where a suspect was cautioned.
- The Stage Two Appeals we are not involved in – we advise IPs of the judicial review process if their appeal to WMP is unsuccessful, but we have no update after that.
- Also, there are still a few appeals outstanding – these are included in the figures.
