

Please can you tell me, as of April 1st 2020, how many officers currently working within your force have been specifically trained to be first responders to reports of domestic abuse made by the public?

West Midlands Police do not have a specific role of 'first responder to DA' all our officers are trained in DA whatever their role upon entry to the organisation.