

Please can you provide information from the Force promotions assessment centre in relation to the Constable - Sergeant Promotion Process and the Sergeant - Inspector process.

For unsuccessful candidates I believe there is an appeals process.

I would like to know how many appeals for the past five years have been lodged by unsuccessful candidates and how many of those appeals have seen following a review the candidate be awarded a pass.

We only hold records for the last two years, any information prior to that is not held. Over that period of time we have had 29 concerns raised at PC- Sgt and Sgt –Inspector levels. The concerns process does not result in the change of scores. If a candidates concern is upheld, the result is a re-assessment of that exercise.

Of the 29 concerns raised 3 have resulted in re-assessment.
