

REQUEST

(a) How many catering establishments are in operation across the West Midlands Police estate and where are these located?

Tally Ho

Lloyd House

All Brighton - Training

(b) Have WMP participated in HM Treasury's 'Eat Out to Help Out' scheme at any point since 1st July 2020 within any of these Establishments?

No

(C) If yes, in which of these establishments?

N/A

(d) If yes, how much has been claimed or is likely to be claimed to date under this scheme;

N/A

(e) Where possible, please provide a menu (prices unadjusted) for these establishments;

Lloyd House and Tally Ho - Please see menu attached.

All Brighton – We do not have a published menu at present, however a list of items provided at this site are below to assist.

We provide for example

Casseroles / stews- Beef and Chicken

Homemade pies - Beef and Chicken

Chilli con carne

Lasagne, bolognaise

Curry

Roast dinners Pork steaks, chicken legs

Battered and poached fish

Chicken, BBQ, sweet and sour, black bean sauce, tikka

Beef and pork burgers

Homemade pizzas Jacket potatoes with side salad, tuna, cheese, beans, chilli

All main meals served with either a potato item, vegetables, steamed rice, pasta, or egg noodles.

Bags filled with fruit, cake item, condiments and cutlery any student or staff not able to eat any of these items are asked to see us to see what we can provide.

Packet lunches are provided for evening training too.

(f) At any of the force catering establishments, is dining subsidised?

No

